

FAMOUS TRUMPETER — Rafael Mendez, who has been called the world's greatest trumpeter, will appear as guest soloist with the Torrance Area Youth Band on May 21 for the band's "Sixth Anniversary Concert."

Famous Musician To Appear Here With Youth Band

Rafael Mendez, who has been called the world's greatest trumpeter, will appear as guest soloist with the Torrance Area Youth Band on May 21, the date set for the band's "Sixth Anniversary Concert," according to James Van Dyke, conductor-director.

Often tabbed as the "Heifetz of the trumpet," Mendez is well-known in music circles and is active in television, radio and theater. He makes frequent appearances with bands and symphony orchestras all over the country, Van Dyke disclosed.

Proceeds from the Mendez Youth Band concert will go into the band's instrument and uniform fund.

Grudge Tilt Set Mar. 2

Los Alamitos Navy and Kirby's Shoes announced today that they'll both be in their best shape of the season for the fifth and final game of their bitter cage series March 2 at Long Beach City College.

The specially scheduled post-season charity clash will mark the rubber game of a two-year series which is currently deadlocked at two wins apiece.

The grudge rivalry, one of the most fierce ever seen in the southland, has seen all four games rage down to wire undecided until the final minute.

Kirby's drew first blood in the dueling with an upset 63-57 win the first time the two tangled in 1952.

Los Alamitos came back to win 68-66 in the next one, but Kirby's gained the upperhand for the '52 series by winning 66-64 in an overtime.

Continuing the thrilling rivalry this season, Los Alamitos staged a sensational rally to whip the shoemen, 80-78, to again knot the count. Kirby's had led by four points with two minutes left, but desperation shooting by Al Roges and George Yardley wiped out the lead, and Rollen Hans came up with a stolen ball to dribble the full length of the floor and sink the winning bucket as the gun sounded.

In total points, Kirby's leads 273-269, only four points difference in two seasons.

The Navy was particularly eager to card the rematch because it will also mark the final local appearance of its famed big four—George Yardley, Hal Uplinger, Al Roges, and Rollen Hans. They will all be discharged before next season.

Besides the big four, the Navy features Johnny Arndt, Grover Luchsinger, and Jack Sparks, all former stars in southland college play.

Boasting one of the finest records in the land, the Navy has whipped the Phillips Oilers, Peoria Cats, Santa Maria Dukes, and all of the top military rivals in the area.
